KANSAS CITY REALTY IS O. K.

WHY LIGGETT & MYERS ARE BUY-ING PROPERTY HERE.

Think Kansas City One of the "Coming" Towns of the Country-Experiments in Progress at the Big Smelter.

Since Liggett & Myers, the big tobacco irm of St. Louis, bought a number of lots at Thirteenth and McGee streets a few ys ago, a rumor has been in circulation that the firm intended to put much money in Kansas City property and contemplated some improvements of value to the city. and might even put up a big branch house

Inquiry among the people who are near the firm and in position to know of its movements shows there is little probability of there being a branch house put in here at present. The firm holds a large amount of choice property and is steadily adding to its holdings as investments. The firm for several years has been investing its surplus earnings each year in well situated city property in cities which offered favorable opportunities for fair returns. The firm has a high opinion of Kansas City firm has a high opinion of Kansas City property and has made the purchase at Thirteenth and McGee as an investment and is considering the feasibility of creeting a large building there, possibly business houses with flats above or a half block of flats.

The firm now owns a substantial portion of that block and it is known that holders of the other portions have been offered good prices for their property. It is believed the idea of the St. Louis house is to secure the full half block for the purpose of making uniform improvements on it.

While the firm has extensive holdings in the city, the individual members also have made investments and are after other pieces of property well located.

NEW EXPERIMENTS.

The Argentine Smelter, if Successful in Preliminary Work, May Add to Its Present Plant.

Because the chemists of the Kansas City melting and Refining Company have been making a series of chemical experiments for the purpose of testing certain ideas of scientific economy in the handling of their lead ore, the rumor has been started that there was to be a big addition erect-ed to the smelter and that the firm was to engage actively in the manufacture of to engage actively in the manufacture of white lead for paints.

Officers of the company said to a reporter for The Journal yesterday that no plan had been adopted for the reported addition. They admitted that the experiments were being made. Whether or not there was to be any use made of the information thus gathered had not been determined. There was simply being made a careful test of certain properties treated with gases to see what tangible results could be accomplished.

It is claimed that at other smelters where

It is claimed that at other smelters where lead is treated gases have been used for the precipitation of the smoke and it has been discovered that there was a net yield of rich returns from the process. The Ar-gentine smelter is considered one of the best in the land. best in the land.

It is altogether probable the company will use for its benefit whatever information the chemists may gather from the experiments and might even add a new department if there appeared to be a profitable field for the employment of the Information.

MANY HOMES TO BE BUILT.

Bright Outlook for a Building Boom in Residences-Five Permits Yesterday.

The indications are that there will b fore residences erected in Kansas City this year than for the past six or eight years. This is regarded as an especially hopeful sign, as indicating a steady in-crease in the population of the city. Five permits for residences were taken out yesterday,

C. F. Schlegel will build two frame residences at 2312 Minnie avenue and 311 Park avenue, to cost $2,500 each.
W. B. Notchick will build a frame residence at 2318 Fest Twelfib, to cost $1,500. dence at 2818 East Twelfth, to cost $1,590.

R. J. McCarty will build a brick residence at 1434 Jefferson, to cost $3,900.

William Hoeizel will build a $1,590 frame residence at 2822 Cherry.

Charles Stelnecke will put up a $2,000 brick business building at 499 Prospect.

Stansfield & Lake took out a permit to erect the Holmes square shelter house, to cost $5,000 and to be completed May 31.

CRUSADERS PASS ON.

Little Band of World-Touring Theosophists Leave for St. Louis to Extend the Cult.

The theosophical crusaders took the Althe next stop will be made. Speaking for the party, Mr. Hargrove said yesterday the next stop will be made. Speaking for the party, Mr. Hargrove said yesterday afternoon: "We have been greatly pleased with our visit to Kansas City, though we regret extremely that Mrs. Tingley, whom so many were anxious to hear, was unable to appear last night. Many have found fault with her for not making the attempt anyway, but I assure you her physician forbade her speaking in the condition her threat was in. We found the cause progressing and spreading in Kansas City at a gratifying rate. When I was here in 18%, I believe you could have counted the students of theosophy on the fingers of one hand, where now the seekers for the truth are numbered by the hundreds. There are some very bright minds and very earnest people interested in the work in Kansas City, and it is bound to go ahead.

"I believe our visit has accomplished at least one good result. We have convinced a good many people that, in spite of all the nonsense that is written and said about Theosophists, they are, after all, very human people, with human hearts and human minds and human love. They are not surrounded by any great mystery, and they are not seeking to lift people away up into the clouds above the common level, but they are trying to make the world a better place to live in and do something for the advancement of the human creed of brotherly love by strictly human methods.

"I leave Kansas City feeling that the people here no longer believe that theosophists are a species of spook who dwell in the woods and live on cabbages."

And to demonstrate his human tastes, Mr. Hargrove lit a fresh cigarette.

Bank of Commerce Proposes to Have a Model Banking Room in the Journal Building.

"The deal involving the trade of the Auditorium property for The Journal building has practically been closed," said Cashier W. A. Rule, of the Bank of Commerce, yesterday. "The terms have been agreed upon, the deeds are drawn, and they only await the signature of Dr. Woods, who is at Hot Springs, to complete the transac-

"No the plans for the remodeling of The Journal building have not been considered yet further than that the first floor of the building will be made into the finest banking room in Kansas City, and I have a rough idea of the general plan which will be followed, but nothing definite has been decided except that the entrance on Tenth street will be closed altogether. There are a number of things to be determined before we can decide just what changes will be made in the building.

Mr. Rule said the signed deeds would have been here before this, but unfortunately those first executed, as already published, were destroyed in the wreck of the Missouri Pacific mail train near Jefferson City the other day and new ones had to be drawn up and forwarded to Dr. Woods for his signature. Journal building have not been considered CITY'S FINANCIAL CONDITION.

BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE AT THE CLOSE OF A FISCAL YEAR.

Estimates of Apportionments Bring the Fund to About $780,000-Board of Equalization May Slightly Reduce the Figures.

When the apportionment committee of the council meets next month it will have in the neighborhood of $775,000 to divide among the various departments of the city government. Last year there was apportioned $762,500, and this amount has been more than realized. The city is in firstclass financial condition, and is in better shape than ever before at the end of a fiscal year. The estimates on which the current apportionment was made were as

Personal $44,905,570
Merchants $,352,430
Banks $2460,544
Licenses $2460,544 Market house receipts

Dog tax 1.559
Police fines 20.000
Interest on daily balances 12.000
The 10 mill levy on the land, personal, merchants and banks' assessments realized $25,850. This sum was raised to $762,500 by the other sources of revenue, The land valuation of 1877 amounts to $44,325,390, including improvements. The personal property will about equal that of last year and will not exceed $5,500,000. The merchants' property will about equal that of last year and will be about $4,000,000. The banks were cut last year from $4,630,000 to $2,469,500. A strong effort will be made to induce the board of equalization not to show such substantial favors this year. It is not thought that the banks will exceed $3,000,000. This would amount to $59,825,990, on which a 10 mill levy for general purposes would realize $338,259,90. The following are estimates carefully made of other sources of revenue:

Licenses, $225,000, largely in excess of last Licenses, $225,000, largely in excess of last year; market house receipts, $39,000; dog year; market house receipts, $39,000; dog tax, $1,550; police lines, $29,000; interest on daily balances, $12,000; delinquent personal taxes, $6,000; a grand total of $847,909,90.

These estimates are regarded as rather liberal, especially in view of the generous proclivities of the board of equalization, but it is not thought by the city officials that the total revenue will fall short of $819,000, from which must be deducted from $25,000 to $30,000 for rebates on taxes paid in May and June, leaving a net available revenue of from $750,000 to $780,000.

PREPARING TO REPORT.

Meeting of the Manufacturers' Committee To-day for the Home Products Exposition. The manufacturers' committee of the Commercial Club will hold a special meeting at the club rooms this afternoon to consider its report, which will be submitted to the mass meeting of manufacturers called for next Thursday to takesteps in the matter of the proposed home products' exposition. The report of the committee will show the plans and probable cest of the proposed exposition, and at the mass meeting of manufacturers the Commercial Club committee will ask to be discharged, though committee will ask to be discharged, though the members may be appointed on the new committee which will carry on the plans under the auspices of the manufacturers instead of the Commercial Club.

Nearly two-thirds of the available space for displays of manufactured articles has been applied for, but a member of the committee said that a number of concerns had asked for much more space than they should receive, and a number of the applications will probably be granted only in part. The Commercial Club will not, however, take action on this, leaving it to be decided by the committee appointed by the manufacturers.

MARRIED ON THE STAGE.

Camden, N. J., Theatergoers Treated to an Extra Bit of Renlism.

Camden, N. J., March 11,-The audience at a theater last night were the witnesses to an unusual scene between the third and fourth acts of the play. They saw the mar-riage ccremony performed which made Edward A. Morris, of Boston, the stage di ctor, and Miss Marie L. Bruner, of Indianapolis, a member of the company, man and wife. When the curtain arose a parlor scene was set on the stage. The bride and groom, with Miss Lottie Church, bridesmaid, and J. Harvey Cook, groomsman, appeared at the wings and walked to the footlights, while the orchestra played a wedding march. Other members of the company, in stage costumes, took positions, and Justice Phillip Schmidtz performed the ceremony. When he pronounced the concluding words of the ceremony, the audience arose. The women waved their handkerchiefs, while their escorts applauded. The members of the company congratulated the newly married couple, the women dianapolis, a member of the company, mar ed the newly married couple, the won showering kisses on the bride.
